Conference tours - Thurs. December 2, 2010

Holiday Shop & Stroll 4PM-9PM

This tour has been thoughtfully designed especially for the IFWE Conference.

It is run by a professional tour operator and includes a fun and friendly tour guide! This fully narrated tour includes humor, history and cultural highlights as we tour the town through historic districts and beautiful neighborhoods.

First, we'll visit the Turquoise Museum (in Old Town) where we will learn the true colors of turquoise and learn how to shop for jewelry during a humorous short seminar given by the author of Turquoise Unearthed. Bring along your favorite piece of turquoise and discover its origin and value! The tour continues with a cruise down Historic Route 66 to the Nob Hill district to partake in the Holiday Shop & Stroll. Enjoy street entertainers and all the shops and restaurants are open and displaying their holiday best. Nob Hill is a vibrant district bursting with eclectic shops, swank dining, and chic nightspots. Route 66 neon signs and architecture combined with predominantly locally-owned shops, galleries and restaurants make Nob Hill a hip and fashionable area located just east of the University. $47pp Includes: transportation, tour guide, admission & tax.

A Taste of Albuquerque 4PM-9PM

Highlights of this tour include a stop at a chile stand where you will be introduced to our local produce, chile, as well as other local yummys like jalapeño peanut brittle. We'll travel to the foothills of Sandia Mountain to Sandiago's Mexican Grill. This restaurant is located at 6,500' above sea level (1,000' higher than your hotel). The view of the city lights is beautiful. Enjoy your favorite beverage from the cash bar and choose from the following entrees: ❖ Blue Corn Enchiladas ❖ Pollo Adobo ❖ Portabella Stack ❖ Grilled Salmon ❖ Grilled NY Steak. We will provide you with a $36 meal receipt. Dress in clothes that layer well, it does get cold in New Mexico. $78pp Includes: transportation, tour guide, dinner entrée, dessert, non-alcohol beverages & tax.
